

Happy Anniversary

Wednesday, June 15, 1938

Specially Created For: Sample

President/V.P. - Franklin D. Roosevelt/John N. Garner

Events of the Month

In the United States, the Civil Aeronautics Authority is created to regulate air traffic. A Columbia University survey criticizes the American Legion as being fascist. President Roosevelt signs the $3.75 billion Emergency Relief Appropriation Act. In Dublin, Douglas Hyde is inaugurated as the first Irish president under the new constitution. In other news, controversial psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud flees Austria and relocates in London. Alfredo Baldomir is inaugurated President of Uruguay. In Berlin, Adolf Hitler decides to confiscate "degenerate art."

Popular Music

Back in 1938, the popular songs were: "A-Tisket A-Tasket" performed by Ella Fitzgerald; "Camel Hop" performed by Mary Lou Williams; "Change Partners" sung by Irving Berlin; and "I Married An Angel" by Lorenz Hart. Also topping the charts: "Love Walked In" by Ira Gershwin; "My Reverie" by Larry Clinton; "September Song" by Maxwell Anderson; and the popular "You Go to My Head" by Fred Coots.

Then vs. Now Cost of Living Comparisons

	1938	2015
Gallon of Milk	$0.50	$3.76
Loaf of Bread	$.09	$1.41
New Auto	$710.00	$26,790.00
Gallon of Gas	$.12	$2.77
New Home	$6,420.00	$208,300.00
Average Income	$1,321.00	$39,659.00
Dow Jones	154.76	17,727.16

That's Entertainment

Ella Fitzgerald hits the music scene this year when she opens at the Savoy in Harlem. Errol Flynn and Olivia de Havilland star in "The Adventures of Robin Hood." This years Your Hit Parade highlights songs like "Jeepers Creepers," "A-Tisket A-Tasket," "I've Got a Pocketful of Dreams" and "Music, Maestro, Please."

The Year's Sports Highlights

The New York Yankees win the World Series in four games against Chicago. George Eyston sets the new auto speed record at 345 mph. California defeats Alabama 13-0 to win the Rose Bowl. Don Budge wins U.S. tennis title at Forest Hills to capture the Grand Slam. Floyd Roberts wins 26th Indy 500, averaging 117.2 mph. A horse named Lawrin, ridden by Eddie Arcaro wins the Kentucky Derby.

Dow Jones

